On What Basis Are You Here?

One intriguing person in the Passion account is the thief on the cross whom Jesus promised a same-day entrance to paradise (see Luke 23:43). Pastor and radio host Alistair Begg says he can't wait to meet that man and ask how everything unfolded. "You were cussing [Jesus] out with your friend," Begg says. "You've never been in a Bible study. You've never been baptized. You didn't know a thing about church membership, and yet you made it!"

In a sermon, Begg pictures an imaginary angel at the pearly gates, growing frustrated during the sinful thief's entrance interview. After receiving no clear answers from the thief about doctrines such as justification, the angel finally asks, "On what basis are you here?" The thief simply replies, "The man on the middle cross said I can

PBs Proclamation

Dear Faith Family,

I am so excited for March! We will be starting a new sermon series called Jesus: The Worthy One. We will spend the entire month discussing Jesus all month long. This will include our Passion Week services. March 28th will be our Maundy Thursday service. We will take communion and have a foot washing just as Jesus washed His disciples feet. I know this may be awkward at first. This is a humbling opportunity. I challenge you to pray and be obedient during the service. If you have never been part of a service like this it can seem strange in today's climate. However, set yourself in a historical context and it makes perfect sense. Back then an act of service was to wash the feet of those who had traveled a long distance. We will be able to participate and follow the example of Jesus.

We will also have a Good Friday service the day after and then on Sunday we will celebrate that Christ arose!! We will start with a sunrise service and after that we will share breakfast together. After Sunday School we will have an Easter Musical during our 11 a.m. service. We have planned an amazing time of worship on this day.

Our job between now and Easter will be to identify and pray for four people that we want to invite to Easter Sunday. We invite them, we sit with them, and we encourage & thank them when they attend.

Our big event after Easter will be our revival. I have included a save the date so you can put it on your calendars.

I want to share a quote with you. "My faith rests not in what I am, or shall be, or feel, or know, but in what Christ is, in what He has done, and in what He is doing for me." ~ Charles Spurgeon

Meditate on this quote and realize that Jesus is all we need. Faith alone in Christ alone!

I pray you all have a great month and know I love you and I am praying for you!
